Latest News

PDA Delivery

We have been told that the following SQA Centres are planning to run the Dyslexia PDA in 2009.

Borders College

Carnegie College

Cumbernauld College

Jewel & Esk College

John Wheatley College (Subject to approval - but enquires will help make a case)

South Lanarkshire College

Contact details for making informal enquires and for making an application are listed at www.dyslexiaworkingparty.org.uk

Please note the full title of the PDA is: Supporting Individuals with Dyslexia in Learning and Workplace Settings. The Group Award Number is: G8LK 47

This list will be updated on the website as we gather more information. However we cannot guarantee that the PDA will run at any of these centres as this depends on the numbers applying.

We would like to hear from other Centres offering the PDA or one of the units. We can then help you find candidates by publicising the course to people on our database.

Assistive Technology

The Dyslexia Working Party is currently investigating options for professional development training in the use of Assistive Technology for dyslexia. We will keep you updated via this bulletin. Meanwhile you might like to investigate AccessApps at www.rsc-ne-scotland.ac.uk/accessapps

Removal from the e-shot database
